About CoDev

CoDevelopment Canada is a BC-based non-profit agency that works for social change in Latin America and here in Canada. CoDev believes that solidarity is at the root of global justice. For over 25 years, CoDev has been working with women, workers and families to improve their lives. CoDev builds partnerships with organisations in Canada and throughout Latin America to protect workers' rights, build solidarity for public education, strengthen grassroots initiatives, engage Canadians in global issues and promote fair trade.

Become an Organizational Member

CoDev is currently supported by over 280 members, representing a variety of trade unions, organizations, individuals, and families throughout Canada. Our members assist us in building awareness of global justice within their workplaces and communities, demonstrating on-the-ground support for our Latin American Partners

As a Member, your organization will receive the following benefits:

- Voting rights at CoDev's Annual General Meeting. One designated delegate per membership.
- CoDev newsletter 3 times a year, Annual Report, and monthly e-bulletin.
- Public recognition of membership contribution on CoDev website, Annual Report, and at Annual Fundraising Dinner.
- Discounts on CoDev events, including international solidarity training workshops and conferences and CoDev's annual film festival. Discounts on CoDev educational resources.
